

As a citizen, I am outraged at the overt political actions of the Sinclair network. This is abuse of their FCC license and a clear example of the danger of media consolidation. A democracy must have at its base free access to all points of view. We cannot export democracy if we do not continue to manufacture it at home. The people are counting on you to act appropriately.